(c) To make functioning of public dealing departments more transparent and pro-active, the government of National Capital Territory of Delhi has undertaken review of their functioning by forming study groups for suggesting measures to improve their functioning. Flying Squads consisting of senior officers are deputed for inspection of public dealing departments. Heads of public dealing departments are advised to take corrective measures, wherever necessary, on the inputs furnished by the Flying Squads on the issue of transparency in working, timely disposal of work and redressed of public grievances. Further, general public are also sensitized and made aware of citizen's charters through newspapers, hoardings and boards displayed at such departments. On receipt of complaints, prompt action is taken against the public servants indulging in the corrupt activities.

Non-registration of complaints by Police Station in Delhi

3618. SHRIMATI JAYA BACHCHAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that non-registration of complaints by Police Stations in the capital in cases of theft of vehicles and that of crime etc., has become a rule rather than an exception with increased number of cases being reported in the media of late;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor; and

(c) whether the instructions issued by his Ministry long back for registration of cases/complaints irrespective of the jurisdiction are being flouted; the steps Government have taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) and (b) Delhi Police has reported that all the cases of vehicle thefts and other crimes are registered immediately on receipt of complaints/information. Delhi Police adopted "Citizen First" as its guiding principle and sustained efforts are being made towards transparency, professionalism and accountability in all fields of its working.

(c) Whenever any congnisable offence is reported, the same is registered in the daily diary. If it is found that the place of occurrence of the incident falls in the jurisdiction of another Police Station, the DD Entry is transferred to the concerned Police Station for follow up action.

Kidnappings in Bihar
